VISION
2020

Teaching for the Future

November 6-8, 2020

As environmental educators, we need to have 20/20 vision to help others get outside, understand environmental concerns, and rejuvenate ourselves in the outdoors. The Environmental Education Association of Indiana (EEAI) supports this as part of the annual EEAI Conference, coming to you virtually in 2020!

Keynote Speakers:

David Sobel

Developing a Ladder of Environmental Responsibility

Rachel Larimore

Shifting from Teaching About to Teaching with Nature: Learning from the Nature-Based Early Childhood Education Movement

Tracks:

- Nature Based Early Childhood Education/Early Childhood Environmental Education
- K-12 Formal Education
- Non Formal Environmental Education
- Administration

How to Access: EEAI will use the Whova app and website for a professional conference experience.

Virtual Conference Benefits:

- Interact in real time or at your convenience with recordings available for one year.
- You don't have to choose which session to attend—all will be available to all participants.
- Connect virtually with people across the state and beyond.
- Create your own breakout rooms for informal conversations in the app.
- Over 30 sessions and/or social options.
- Virtual and in-person regional field trips will be offered. Updates will be provided on the EEAI website.
